At Nine-twenty-one o'clock (9:21) a.m., a public hearing was held as provided by law in the Board Room 201 of the Black Hawk County Courthouse, Waterloo, Iowa at which time all interested persons could appear to file objections on the proposed adoption of a resolution establishing the total maximum property tax dollars that may be certified for levy for general county services and total maximum property tax dollars that may be certified for levy for rural county services.

Moved by White, seconded by Little to open the Public Hearing on the FY22 Budget proposed total maximum property tax dollars that may be certified for levy for general county services and total maximum property tax dollars that may be certified for levy for rural county services. Motion carried.

The Board of Supervisors examined proof of publication of notice and determined that the notice had been published on February 2, 2021 in the Courier and on February 1, 2021 in the Hudson Herald in accordance with the requirements of the Code of Iowa.

Moved by White, seconded by Laylin to receive and place on file proof of publication of notice of public hearing. Motion carried.

Moved by White, seconded by Little to close the hearing and oral and written comments were received and placed on file. Finance Director James Perry said the county must pass a resolution preliminary to considering the FY22 budget that sets a general basic and rural basic fund maximum increase, which cannot go above 2%. He said the general basic maximum increase is 1.77% and the rural fund currently shows a 1.94% decrease. He said the actual overall increase will be lower. Motion carried.

Trelka moved the following resolution seconded by White.

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that that the maximum property tax dollars for General County Services and Rural County Services for FY 2022 shall not exceed the following: General County Services - $30,175,850; Rural County Services - $3,194,619. Moved by Little, seconded by White to direct the Finance Director to advertise for a PUBLIC HEARING on the proposed Black Hawk County Budget for the Fiscal Year 2021-2022 to be held on February 23, at 9:05 a.m. in Board Room 201 of the Black Hawk County Courthouse, Waterloo, Iowa. Motion carried.

DISCUSSION – County Preparedness and Possible Updates for COVID-19. Superintendent of Maintenance Rory Geving said that masks are available to the public at the courthouse entrance, and not at his office in the basement. Trelka thought the Board should start thinking about when it would rescind the mask requirement in county buildings. White said he expected it to be after summer, considering the slow pace of vaccination distribution by the state. Little said that people who have received the vaccine are still encouraged to wear a mask.

ANY REPORTS OR INFORMATION FROM THE BOARD. Schwartz said the Warming Center at the old Hawkeye Metro Center on West 4th St., normally only open at night, was open from Friday night through Monday morning due to the extreme cold temperatures. Anyone who is housing insecure is welcome. Normally the available daytime option is the Cedar Valley Hospitality Center.

On motion and vote the meeting adjourned.
